Use of cookies – Google analytics

We use Google Analytics to keep track of how the website is used by visitors. The just collected data is sent and saved to servers in the United States by Google.

You can view the privacy policy of Google for more information, as well as the specific privacy policy of Google Analytics.

Google uses this information to monitor how our website is used, to provide us with reports on our website and to offer its advertisers information about the effectiveness of their campaigns.

Google can furnish this information to third parties if Google is legally obliged to do so, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. We have no influence on this. We did not give any permission to Google that the obtained analytical information can be used for outer Google services.

Use of recaptcha - Google

In order to protect input forms on our site, we use the "recaptcha" service of Google. By means of this service it can be distinguished whether the corresponding input is of human origin or is created improperly by automated machine processing.

To our knowledge, the referrer URL, the behaviour of the website visitors, information about the operating system, browser and length of stay, cookies, display instructions and scripts, user input behaviour and mouse movements in the "recaptcha" checkbox are conveyed to "Google." The IP address provided as part of "recaptcha" is not merged with other data from Google unless you are logged into your Google Account at the time the "recaptcha" plug-in is used. If you want to prevent this transmission and storage of data by "Google" about you and your behaviour on our website, you must log out of "Google" before you visit our site or before using the recaptcha plug-in.

Google can furnish this information to third parties if Google is legally obliged to do so, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. We have no influence on this. We did not give any permission to Google that the obtained analytical information can be used for outer Google services.

The use of the "recaptcha" service is according to the Google Terms of Use :
